

Notes of Thanks

Pastor Neely, thank you for guiding us through such a powerful Holy Week. Your sermons on the Passion and Resurrection brought us closer to Christ. We are so grateful for your dedication and service to our community.

A heartfelt thank you to our Choir Director, Paul Broome, choir members Amanda Alexander, Sandy Bennett, Mary Beth Burton, Ann Crawford, Kent Dodson, Sarah Gaston, Jane McCain, Scott Rishebarger, and guest musician, Steve Jackson, for their dedication during Holy Week. Their beautiful music enhanced our services from Palm Sunday through Easter, guiding our worship and elevation our hearts. We are deeply grateful for the long hours of rehearsal and devotion.

Thanks to Rob Dodson for narrating our Good Friday service.

A special thanks to all of the following children who participated in our worship service Easter Sunday: Dalton Catledge, Josh Catledge, Natalie Dodson, Isabel Dodson, Daniel Dodson, Rowan Graybill, Hudson Graybill, Archer Graybill, Emma Kelley, and Brody Kelley. We wish to thank Mary Beth Burton for her leadership role and JR Gordon for being our narrator. We are also grateful for the Deacons setting up and taking down the stage.

Thank you, parents and grandparents, for your dedicated efforts to bring children to church and engage them in meaningful worship this Easter season. Your commitment helps children experience God's love and learn to worship.

Thanks to Jessie Gordon for keeping children when they were not practicing or performing.

Thank you to the following volunteers whose hard work, joy, and dedication made this year's Easter Egg Hunt a massive success: Nancy Bailey, Paul Broome, Mary Beth Burton, Katherine Dodson, Robin Dodson, Rob Dodson, and our "Easter Bunny."

Thanks to the following men for preparing and serving our Easter breakfast: John Agee, Pete Burton, Barry Dodson, Kent Dodson, Rob Dodson, Bill Gladden, Evan Graybill, Joe Howell, Joe McCain, Liam McCain, David McCain, T Melton, and David Simpson. Your early morning service allowed us to gather in fellowship and celebrate the joy of the resurrection together.

I would like to thank Bill Gladden for donating to our Easter breakfast and for the forsythia flower arrangement.

Thank you to everyone who purchased Easter lilies. They were beautiful this year.

Richburg Methodist Church recently closed. They graciously donated their cross to our church. A special thanks to Garner Agee for placing the cross in front of the church.

We extend a heartfelt thank you to Scottie Hill for donating to our Easter Breakfast.

Thanks to Scott Rishebarger for keeping our church sign updated.

A special thanks to our Deacons for maintaining our church grounds. And, thanks to David McCain for cutting the grass and weed eating.
